The Daily Courant.

Saturday, April 6. 1723.

Madrid, March 22.

THE 19th Instant being St. Joseph's Day, the King attended by the Grandees and other Nobility, heard High Mass celebrated in the Palace Chapel, and in the Evening his Majesty went with the same Company, together with the foreign Ministers, and diverted himself at Mall in the Buen-Retiro. The Marquess de Maulevrier Minister of France, received by an Express last Week from Paris, a Draught of the Act of Investiture offered by the Emperour in Favour of the Infante Don Carlos, touching the Possession of the Dominions of Tuscany, Parma, and Plaisance, and presented the same to his Catholick Majesty, who was pleased to refer it to a Junto of Ministers held the 19th, consisting of the Marquess de Grimaldo Secretary of State; Don Michael Francisco Guerra Councellour of Castile; the President the Marquess de Mirabel; and the Father Confessour; it is believed, that the Substance of this Act will be approved and shortly returned back to Paris. Two Battalions of Spanish and Flemish Guards are now cloathed, in order to be sent to Catalonia, in lieu of a like Number who are to come hither into Quarters. Several new Commissions have been given within these few Days past, to Officers who are appointed to fill up the Vacancies in the Regiments that are to be transported to Cuba; and for the Diversion of the Prince of Asturias and Infantes, a Fort is to be built in the Neighbourhood of this City, in order to be regularly besieged by the Regiments quartered hereabouts. Great Numbers of Carriage-Horses and Mules are sent to Cadiz and Pontevedra, to carry to the Mint the Bullion that came for the King's Account in the last Galleons; 'tis not yet known if that belonging to the Merchants be yet unloaded, in the mean Time they complain greatly of the bad Market their Goods cause at Porto Bello.

Paris, April 3. The Duke of Orleans came from Versailles to the Palace Royal the 31st past, at Two a-Clock in the Afternoon; in the Evening he supped with the Dutchess of Orleans and Duke of Chartres at Bagnolet, and returned the next Evening to Versailles, but the Duke of Chartres went away thither by Six in the Morning, in order to be at the King's Levée. The Dutchess of Orleans was Yesterday a little indisposed, but set out To-Day for Versailles. It is assured, that a Present of 30000 Pistoles is to be given to the Princess Philippa Elizabeth of Orleans, out of the Produce of Effects, which the French Merchants and other Persons of this Nation have received by the Galleons lately arrived, their Factors and Correspondents at Cadiz having demanded it. It is reported, that at the Assembly of the Clergy next Month, not any Mention will be made of the Bull Unigenitus, or any Particular concerning it, but only Matters relating to the ordinary Business of the Dioceses of the Kingdom. Several new Disputes have happened lately at Rheims about the Constitution.

Hague, April 6. The Spanish Ambassadour very much presses the sending a Squadron this Spring against the Algerines; 'tis very probable some will be sent, and 'tis also discoursed, that it will winter in the Port of the Mediterranean; nevertheless according to the Time the Money for defraying its Expence can be all got in, it will hardly fail before the End of June next. The Jewels belonging to the Elector of Bavaria that are pledg'd in this Country under Guarantee of the States, not having any Interest paid upon them for four Years past, the States have taken a Resolution to cause them to be sold in Case the Interest is not discharged in two Months; and the same has been notified to the Secretary whom the Bavarian Minister left here at his Departure some Months ago for Munich. Besides the Ships that were freighted for the Baltick by the Muscovite Ambassadour here, several others are sailed from Amsterdam for the North under Muscovite Colours. The States sent Orders last Week to their Minister at Vienna, to make Representations at that Court concerning the India Company that is going to be established at Ostend; and likewise to their Ministers residing at other Courts, to engage them to use their good Offices with that of Vienna to prevent the establishing of the said Company.

Hague, April 9. The Meeting of the States of Holland that was appointed for this Day, is put off to next Week, against which Time a Courier is expected back from Copenhagen, who was dispatched thither upon Occasion of the Apprehensions the Dutch Merchants trading to the Baltick are in left the Danes should disturb their Navigation. The Admiralty Deputies are still here, considering Means for raising Money to fit out the Fleet designed for the Mediterranean. Notwithstanding some late Scruples made to the Credentials of the King of Sardinia's Minister here, by Reason the States have not yet acknowledged his Sardinian Majesty, the Chevalier Olorio is however confided'd here as Minister to his said Majesty.
